REFLECT, RELAX,
AND RENEW
WHILE COLORING IN NATIVE AMERICAN MANDALAS.

Thirty-one mandalas based on traditional Native American motifs, from a Hopi rising rain deity to a Cheyenne symbol of the universe, are presented for contemplation while you color them in with your choice of hues. Quotes, prayers, and songs provide deeper insights into the meanings behind the mandalas. Other examples include Navajo thunder arrows, Ojibwa mystical symbols, Yokut weaving designs, a Pueblo falcon, and a Papago labyrinth—all illuminating the Native American respect and regard for Mother Earth and the Great Spirit.
